Scripture: Read Luke 6:35

Devotional: Extra Rewards

Carol's eyes were shining as she opened the door for her mother who had just arrived back from shopping. She could not wait to see if Mother noticed all the work she had done while she was gone.

And sure enough, she did. "Why Carol," Mother exclaimed, "you cleaned the house for me; everything looks so nice! And you washed the dishes, too. Thank you very much, my dear."

I made you a cake too, Mommy," Carol said. "Wonderful! I think for a reward we will go out for hamburgers and French fries. Then I'll buy some ice cream to have with your cake."

I didn't do it for a reward, Mommy; I did it because I love you," Carol said. But she got a reward, too.

We do things for the Lord Jesus because we love Him. And He has promised to reward us besides!
