Devotional: The Perfect Gift

"Hurry and open it, Mom! I hope you like it!" Jim was so excited he could hardly wait for his mom to open the gift he made just for her. It was exactly what mom needed and that made it special. It had cost a lot...not money...but time. Jim had looked and looked before he found the perfect gift!

God has given you his own very special gift...and it's exactly what you need. What is it? God's gift to you is His Son, Jesus Christ. God knew you needed Jesus to take the punishment for the wrong things you have said and done. Jesus died for your sins. When you receive God's wonderful gift your sins are forgiven. They no longer separate you from Him. You can live in friendship with God.

Jesus Christ is the perfect gift from God. Have you received Him?
